Subject: Offer for Student Internship

Dear Logeshwaran D,

We are pleased to offer you an opportunity to join LGS Technologies as a Student Intern in the Backend Development department.

Your internship period will commence from 31/05/2026 to 01/07/2026. During this period, you will be involved in various tasks, training sessions, and projects related to your field of study in order to enhance your practical knowledge and professional skills.

As a Student Intern, you are expected to maintain discipline, punctuality, confidentiality, and professionalism throughout the internship duration and comply with the rules and regulations of the organization.

This internship is being provided for educational and training purposes to support your academic and career development. Upon successful completion of the internship, you may be provided with an Internship Certificate based on your performance and attendance.

We are confident that your association with LGS Technologies will be mutually beneficial and provide you with valuable industry exposure.

Please sign and return a copy of this letter as a token of your acceptance of the internship offer.

We look forward to welcoming you to our organization and wish you a successful learning experience with us.

Yours sincerely,
LGS Technologies
